DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 4/7/2005 has been entered.

Response to Amendment

2. Amendment received on 4/7/2005 is acknowledged and entered. Claims 1, 8, 14-16, 23, 25, 30 and 36-38 are currently amended. New claims 67 and 68 have been added. Currently claims 1, 3, 8, 14-16, 23, 25, 30, 36-38, 67, and 68 are pending for examination.

Response to Arguments

3.1. Priority claim: The applicant's arguments, see Remarks, page 6, filed on 4/7/2005 have been fully considered but are not persuasive. The examiner once again reviewed the provisional application 60/110,952, filed on December 4, 1998, (30 pages, specification consisting of pages 3-15, claims consisting of pages 16-24, abstract on page 25, drawings on pages 26-29) as well as the earlier filed non-provisional application 09/372,253 and could not find supporting subject matter for the limitation, "permitting download of the file based on a number of attempted downloads of the file by the user and a number of successful downloads of the file by the user". Therefore currently amended claims 1, 3, 8, 14-16, 23, 25, 30, 36-38, 67 and 68 do not qualify to claim priority to the filing dates of the provisional application 60/110,952, filed on December 4, 1998 and non-provisional application 09/372,253 filed on 08/11/1999 to comply with the requirements of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112.

3.2 Applicant's arguments and currently amended claims, see Remarks on page 7, filed 4/7/2005, with respect to rejection of claims 1, 3, 8, 14 and 16 under 35 U.S.C. 101 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1, 3, 8, 14 and 16 under 35 U.S.C. 101 is withdrawn.

3.3 Applicant's arguments filed on 4/7/2005, see Remarks on pages 7-9, concerning rejection of claims 1, 3, 8, 14-16, 23, 25, 30, 36-38 under 35 USC 103 (a) and the reference Pitts have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection, that is as being unpatentable over Downs and further in view of Rogers (US Patent 5,652,786).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4 The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4.1. Claims 1, 3, 8, 14-16, 23, 25, 30, 36-38 and 67-68 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Downs and further in view of Rogers (US Patent 5,652,786), hereinafter, referred to Rogers.

Regarding claims 1, 3, 8, 16, and 67, Downs teaches a method performed by an electronic commerce system having a server and an end user machine interacting through a network for secure downloading of a file from the network, the method comprising steps of:

receiving a selection of a file via the network, receiving an order from a user, during an online session, for download of the selected file, the order including a file identifier related to the file and an order identifier related to the order, verifying the file identifier based upon particular information related to the file comprising one or more of the following: verifying a version identifier related to the file, a uniform resource locator for the file; or verifying the order identifier based upon particular information related to the order comprising a custom identifier associated with the user, verifying a transaction identifier associated with the order, and the particular information related to the order including : determining if the order identifier is valid for the order, meaning the order identifier exists for the order, determining if the order identifier is active, meaning the order was not canceled before the download of the file, and determining if the order identifier is non-suppressed, meaning the order was not canceled after the download of the file, during the online session, and selectively permitting the download of the file based upon a number of requested downloads based upon the verification of the file identifier, transaction identifier and the order identifier, receiving a selection of a uniform resource locator for the file and determining if the uniform resource locator is valid, active, non-suppressed or charged, also selectively downloading the file based upon a number of successful downloads of the file and upon a time parameter related to submission of the order, and denying the download based upon a customer identifier associated with the user (at least see, col.3, lines 40-55,transferring the encrypted data....clearing house.....transferring the re-encrypted data.....to the user's system....". col.7, lines 2-16, "..licensing authorization and control....conditions of purchase and license, such as permitted number of copies, number of plays, and the time interval or term the license may be validenabling intermediate or End-User (s) to unlock content after verification of a successful completion of licensing transaction..", col.8, lines 26-31, "..The architecture is open...Distribution of audio, programs, multimedia, video or other types of Content....", col.10, lines 19-26, "*... Downs further teaches determining if an order identifier is also active-corresponding order must not have been canceled before downloading the ordered file, and non-suppressed -order must not have been canceled after downloading the ordered file, (see Downs at least col.10, line 50-col.11, line 27, wherein Downs teaches that the Clearinghouse (s) 105 checks all transactions relating to sale before authorizing license and later checks if the user is permitted to use the authorized license and this corresponds to checking if the order is canceled before and after the order. Also see at least col.6, line 65-col.8, line 5, col.10, lines 19-48, col.81, line 10-col.82, line 22, col.85, lines 53-63.).

Downs does not teach permitting download of the file to the end user machine based on a number of attempted downloads of the file by the user and a number of successful downloads of the file by the user. However, in the analogous field of endeavor, that is method and apparatus of bill payment via a network to prevent fraudulent transactions, Rogers discloses permitting download of the file based on a number of attempted downloads of the file by the user and a number of successful downloads of the file by the user (see at least col. 6, line 33-col. 9, line 17, wherein Rogers teaches that while users conducting bill payments via a network (telephone), the users are allowed certain number of attempts to validate the entry of access codes, account numbers, debit card numbers, dollar amount and if the attempted downloads of the file, that is entering the numbers of access codes, account numbers, debit card numbers, and dollar amount exceed certain numbers a corresponding action is initiated. If the attempts to download the file including the various information relating to numbers, as cited above, are within three attempts the user is allowed to continue the download of the files including that information but if the attempted downloads exceed 3 the transaction is stopped for further validation. Rogers teachings of permitting downloading of files containing access codes, account numbers, debit card numbers, dollar amount based upon the number of attempted downloads, that is three and if the third is successful then the transaction is continued and if unsuccessful then the transaction is discontinued is reasonably pertinent to the particular problem with which the applicant was concerned, in order to be relied upon as a basis for rejection of the claimed invention. See In re Oetiker, 977 F.2d 1443, 24 USPQ2d 1443 (Fed. Cir. 1992).

In view of Rogers, it would have been obvious to one of an ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have modified Downs to incorporate the feature of permitting download of the file based on a number of attempted downloads of the file by the user and a number of successful downloads of the file by the user. Doing so helps the Downs system to prevent fraudulent use of debit cards for payments, as explicitly suggested Rogers.

4.2. With regards to claims 14-15, the steps of requesting identification of a file name for storing the file, displaying a default identification as the file name for storing the file based upon an identification of the file and transmitting the generated file identifier for display to the user are inherent during the download.

43. With regards to apparatus claims 23, 25, 30, 36-38, and 68, their limitations correspond to method claims 1, 3, 8, 14-16, 67 and are, therefore, analyzed and rejected similarly.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

(i) US Patent 6,108,642 to Findley discloses a device for selectively blocking a current remote purchase request using a credit card based on past purchase information history (see at least Abstract).
